Call for Nominations: 2018-2019 NADE Executive Board

The NADE Executive Board is issuing a call for nominations for President-Elect and Secretary who will serve on the Board beginning February 24, 2018. Installation is at the 2018 NADE conference. The deadline for nominations is September 15, 2017.

The Executive Board welcomes and is actively soliciting nominations from NADE Chapters and from individual NADE members. Nominees should be aware of and willing to pursue nomination for a specific position. The Election Committee will submit all nominees, along with their professional resumes and recommendations to the Executive Board. The Board will then review the names and information submitted, the Election Committee recommendations, and determine the slate for the ballot. The Election Committee will present to the membership the final list of candidates in electronic ballot form.

A suggested nomination does not automatically constitute a place on the slate. In the interest of diversity, the following factors will be considered: geographical location and type of institution (e.g., two year, four year; public, private). Other factors include interest level, resume, developmental education/learning assistance experience, presentations and publications, references, length of membership in NADE at the chapter and national level, and description of previous NADE leadership activities (e.g., chapter leader, national committee chair or member, SPIN group chair). Leadership in other associations may be considered as well.

In addition to meeting the specific qualifications for each position, Board officers are also expected to fulfill more general but essential roles as team members who take an active role in running the Association, so candidate selection will be made "...in the Association's best interests and priorities" (NADE Bylaws, Article V, Section 2). The Election Committee will send each nominee a copy of the appropriate job description.

Nominees should have sufficient time and institutional support for the activities necessary to carry out the duties of the respective positions. Institutional support may be demonstrated in a variety of ways (e.g., secretarial help; costs for telephone calls, mailing, copying and travel.) Institutional support of the suggested nominee's institution must be provided in written form (e.g., promise that the nominee will receive additional leave to attend executive board meetings and NADE conferences, time to respond to telephone calls during work hours, time to conduct some association business during work hours).

The President-elect serves a 2-year term, and then succeeds to the Presidency for a two-year term. In addition, the President-Elect shall

- Participate actively in all Executive Board meetings and provide reports of all activities.
- Serve as the Executive Board liaison with the NADE Accreditation Commission, Committee and SPIN Coordinators and maintain regular communication with them.
- Participate on the JDE Advisory Council.

- Maintain an active presence on social media such as the LRNASST, LSCHE, and others.
- Provide content for the President's report at the annual conference business meeting.
- Perform additional duties at the discretion of the President and Executive Board.

Provide timely transition for the incoming President-elect and mentor as requested.

Elections Committee Report – Elisa Cohen

Happy Summer! I hope you will consider lending your valuable talents and leadership skills to the NADE Executive Team by running for one of the open positions: President-elect and Secretary. The elected officers will join in spring 2018 and serve through 2019. There is still plenty of time to nominate yourself or someone else through this link. Please refer to the above information under the Call for Nominations section form ore information.

Also, I would be happy to have you join the Elections Committee as we move through the nomination and election cycle. Contact me with questions or suggestions at escohen@hacc.edu.

Finally, why vote? In late October, all active members will have the opportunity to cast a vote for NADE leadership. I hope you will take the time to review the candidates and vote for the person who best represents you and your values. As the national election has demonstrated, every vote counts and goes a long way in determining the direction of our profession and vocation as voices for underprepared students.

NCADE (North Carolina Association for Developmental Education) Report – Jennifer Leigh

North Carolina Association for Developmental Education has been hard at work this year. Coming off three successful regional conferences, we are preparing for our 32nd statewide annual conference on October 5-6 at the Koury Center in Greensboro, NC. This year's theme is "Embracing the Challenges of Living in a World of Constant Change," which very much characterizes the many changes North Carolina's Developmental programs are undergoing. We are excited to have NADE's own Robin Ozz as our keynote speaker and the National Center for Developmental Education's Patti Levine-Brown as our guest speaker. We are expecting a strong turnout and welcome any and every one to come join us to share what you are doing in your schools. Visit our website for more information: www.ncade.org.

In addition to working on our conference, we have been busy making friends with several professional organizations. We have signed reciprocal agreements with important organizations, such as TYFY (Two-Year, First-Year), the NCDE (National Center for Developmental Education), the Kellogg Institute, NCMATYC (North Carolina Mathematical Association of Two Year Colleges), and SCADE (South Carolina Association for Developmental Education), just to name a few. We are currently working to expand our collaboration with other state chapters and professional organizations, primarily those associated with public schools. If your organization is interested in working with NCADE, please reach out to our Professional Liaison, Wes Anthony. anthonyws@appstate.edu

Furthermore, North Carolina is still rejoicing over some impressive award wins. Our Western Piedmont Community College brought home NADE's Outstanding Developmental Program award from Oklahoma this year, and Gaston College earned their NADE Certification, as well! We are hoping to continue showing how great NC Developmental Educators are by pushing the awards at the state level and sending them on to the national level. We all deserve to be recognized, and what better way than to be nominated by your professional organizations!!

Hopefully, we will all meet in Maryland next year and be celebrating YOU!!!
