The NOSS Executive Board is pleased to share with you the latest white paper developed by members of the NOSS Equity, Access, and Inclusion Network, led by Network Chair Emily Suh and including S. Owens, Ekateryna O'Meara, and Leanna Hall. The white paper, entitled "Clarifying Terms and Reestablishing Ourselves within Justice: A Response to Critiques of Developmental Education as Anti-Equity," gives NOSS members some clear talking points for responding to critics and recommends additional resources. We commend the authors of the paper and hope that it is of great use to you as members. You can find the paper linked on the home page of the NOSS website thenoss.org.

PRACTITIONER TO PRACTITIONER!

Do you have a best practice you'd like to share, but don't have the time to write a formal research paper?

Please consider sharing your idea and have it published in NOSS' Practitioner to Practitioner. NOSS encourages any practice that promotes student success! Guidelines can be found at thenoss.org, and then click onto library, Practitioner to Practitioner.

The goal of P-to-P is for practitioners to share and promote exciting programs, services, professional development opportunities, workshops, placement changes, courses, advising practices, student organizations, or summer programs – just some examples that have shown success.

Share. Together we can.

Submit your article to: practitioner@thenoss.org

Share and get published!
